

Emily Landis Walker

PROFILE

Emily Landis Walker, CEO of Landis & Co, is a Senior Advisor on financial services, capital raising, blockchain, cryptocurrency and initial coin offerings (ICOs). Emily combines her 30-year network and experience in financial services, international institutions, and public sector to offer C-suite clients expert consulting services on the global regulatory and marketplace ecosystem for blockchain and cryptocurrencies.

Emily travels globally to landscape the regulatory space for cryptocurrency start-ups, ICOs, and exchanges in the U.S., U.K, Singapore, Hong Kong, Vietnam, Philippines and Japan. Emily has participated in Women on the Block, Consensus 2018, numerous meet-ups globally. She has spoken on blockchain panels and holds regular discussions with legal counsel, regulators, trade associations, think tanks, and start-ups globally. Emily is closely engaged with international organizations in their discussions on cryptocurrencies and regulation, including the IMF/ World Bank, OECD, WEF, EBRD, AfDB, ADB and has attended meetings and conferences with these groups. She has developed a robust contact database of investors and participants in the blockchain space.

FEATURED CLIENTS AND PROJECTS:

Blockchain/Cryptocurrency

Emily assisted a London-Arizona based supply chain blockchain start-up with a dual token system. Emily's focus: ICO investor relations, US, Europe and Asia regulatory relations, Representative member of US Chamber of Commerce's Fintech group.

Fintech and Innovation

Emily created the "bank of the future" for a Middle Eastern Bank, wrote the Information Security policy for a large Central Bank, conducted business development for Simudyne (a systems dynamics simulation platform), created the due diligence briefing book (in an i-book format) for a Luxembourg based Nanotechnology company and a new type of mobile transportation bike.

Financial Services

Emily served as Head of Corporate Affairs for Barclays Global Retail and Commercial Bank (GRCB) based in London. Prior to that post, Emily spent 15 years with Citibank/Citigroup as a Managing Director in Emerging Markets Corporate Banking, Retail and Institutional Asset Management, Traveler's Life and Annuity, and Global Wealth Management. She was heavily involved in the merger integration of Citi and Travelers.

Public office

Emily served on the "9-11 Commission" as Professional Staff Member and Family Liaison. In 2006, Emily was seconded by Citigroup to the United Nations World Food Program (WFP) in Rome to launch a global Emergency Network." Emily represented the United States on the Board of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD) in London at its' inception in 1991. She served as Executive Secretary to the US Secretary of the Treasury, Nicholas Brady. She also worked for 8 years at the International Monetary Fund on staff and in the U.S. Director's office.

Other information

M.A. Johns Hopkins SAIS.

B.A. University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Studied in Bologna, Italy and Aix-en-Provence, France

IMC Level I qualified.

U.S. & UK dual citizen. Speaks English, Italian and French.