

Emily Landis Walker

PROFILE

Emily Landis Walker brings years of global financial experience and network to provide expert consulting services through Landis & Co. with a focus on block chain and crypto-currency global regulatory and marketplace advisory as well as investor relations/capital raising for traditional and crypto space companies. She also advises on Emergency Preparedness and Business Continuity.

Blockchain and Cryptocurrency

Emily was immersed in blockchain working for a start-up company from December 2017 traveling globally to understand the regulatory space for start-ups, ICOs, and exchanges in the U.S., U.K, Singapore, Hong Kong, Viet Nam, Philippines, Japan, Malta, and Switzerland. She has participated in Consensus 2018/2019/2020, and spoken at the WEF in Davos in 2020 on regulatory aspects of cryptocurrencies as well as 4 panels during Fintech Week in London. She was awarded one of the top 100 women in crypto and has been a panelist on numerous pandemic zoom calls discussing blockchain/crypto and global economic issues as well as being a university class-room panelist. She attended conferences with international organizations including the IMF/World Bank, OECD, WEF, and EBRD. She has developed a robust and trusted contact database of investors and participants in the block chain space.

Fintech and Innovation

Emily provides innovative consulting services to numerous clients globally. She assisted the Dept of Defense in bring private sector investors to Iraq, based in Erbil. She created the “bank of the future” and set up the management for the CEO for two Middle Eastern Banks and helped an oil company in Kuwait prepare to list on their stock exchange. She wrote the Information Security policy for a large Central Bank, conducted business development for Simudyne (a systems dynamics simulation platform), and created the due diligence briefing book to lead a $50 million capital raise for a Luxembourg based Nanotechnology company and a new type of mobile transportation bike.

Financial Services

In 2008, Emily served as Head of Corporate Affairs for Barclays Global Retail and Commercial Bank based in London. Emily was a Managing Director from 1995-2008 at Citibank/Citigroup in Emerging Markets Corporate & Investment Banking, Retail and Institutional Asset Management, Traveler’s Life and Annuity, and Global Wealth Management. She ran the Corporate & Investment Bank merger integration between Citi and Travelers.

Public office

Emily was seconded by Citigroup to the Nobel Peace Prize winning U.N World Food Program (WFP) in Rome in 2006 to launch a Global Emergency Network for corporate donations. As a 9-11 survivor, she served on the “9-11 Commission” as Professional Staff Member and Family Liaison and has served on several Boards related to Security & Preparedness. Emily represented the U.S. on the Board of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD) in London from 1991-93. She served as Executive Secretary to the US Secretary of the Treasury, Nicholas F. Brady from 1991-93. She began her career working for 8 years at the International Monetary Fund on staff and in the U.S. Director’s office.

Other information

M.A. Johns Hopkins SAIS Washington, D.C./Bologna Italy
B.A University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill/
Aix-en-Provence, France
Political commentator on CNN International, BBC, and Sky News.
US & UK dual citizen. Speaks English, French & Italian